THE MORNING'S NEWS.

WASHINGTON.

The Internal Revenue Taxes.

WASHINGTON, March 21.—The ways and means committee agreed this morning to a resolution instructing the subcommittee on changes in the internal revenue laws to report a bill abolishing all internal revenue taxes except the tax on distilled spirits, malt liquors, and manufactured tobacco, and the taxes on bank circulation and on alcoholic medicines, reserving for their discretion the reduction of the tax on cigars and special taxes on dealers' manufactures, etc.

The New York Assay Office.

The House Committee on coinage, weights and measures will probably take up at their next meeting the question of rebuilding the New York Assay Office. The importance of increasing the facilities of this office is fully realized and the committee will use every effort to accomplish that result. It is probable that the present site will be used and the building enlarged.

The Verdict in the Whittaker Trial to be Set Aside.

The record of the court-martial in the case of colored cadet J. C. Whittaker will be made public tomorrow, through special orders to be issued by the Secretary of War. These orders will set aside the verdict and sentence of the court-martial, on account of certain irregularities and informalities in the taking of evidence in the course of the trial, and will release Whittaker from arrest. At the same time they will dismiss him from the Military Academy under provisions of section 1325 of the Revised Statutes, relating to the discharge of cadets found deficient in their studies. The action of the President in this case is based upon the opinion of Attorney General Brewster to whom the Secretary of War referred the report of the Judge Advocate General, that improper evidence had been admitted in Whittaker's trial. He held that according to the decision of courts in most of the states and of the United States Supreme Court, evidence cannot properly be introduced to prove the handwriting of the accused person by comparing a certain letter which is in evidence with other papers which are supposed to have been written by him, but which are not in evidence, and that the taking of testimony of experts upon such a comparison of documents is improper and unlawful.

Anxiety About the Chinese Bill.

There is a growing sentiment among Republican members to amend the Chinese bill by reducing the time from twenty to ten years, and introducing some other modifications. There is a strong belief that the bill will seriously affect our commerce with China, and many members are beginning to admit privately that if the bill passes a good deal of supposed American doctrine will need modification.

Some of the friends of the Chinese bill are very much disturbed over a report that the President does not look with favor upon some of the provisions of the pending bill, and it is suspected from certain remarks current that the Secretary of State, Mr. Frelinghuysen, does not believe that the limit when Chinese can again come to this country ought to be fixed at twenty years.

Notes.

Judge Advocate General Swaim has made a report to the Secretary of War upon the case of Sergeant Mason, in which it is understood he recommends a modification of the latter's sentence.

It is stated, by persons who are thought to be well informed, that Senator Teller, of Colorado, will be nominated as Secretary of the Interior.

The Secretary of State and Mrs. Frelinghuysen entertained at dinner this evening, the President, General and Mrs. Grant, Hon. David Davis, Mr. Justice Bradley, Mr. Justice Gray, Secretary Folger and Hon. Hamilton Fish.

A caucus of Republican Senators and Representatives was held in the hall of the House of Representatives tonight, for the purpose of selecting a Republican Congressional campaign committee.

A POORLY-BUILT BRIDGE.

The First Train Breaks Through.

DES MOINES, Ia., March 21.—As the first train was going over the new bridge over the Middle river on the Des Moines and Osceola narrow gauge railway yesterday, at Lathrop, when fairly on the bridge the entire span gave way, precipitating the engine, two flat cars and the caboose into the river channel below. No one was killed. The fireman had an arm and a leg broken; the engineer had a wrist broken; John Hunter, L. Richards and two boys were injured.

THE SEARCH FOR THE JEANNETTE.

Danenhower to join Lieut. Harber.

WASHINGTON, March 21.—Secretary Hunt has received a cable message from Lieut. Giles Harber of the Jeannette search party, at Nischneudinsk, as follows:—

Despatch to take charge of Lena received. I met Danenhower here. Will report after further conversation. His five men are essential to conduct the search in the Lena. No other seamen can be obtained. They are in splendid condition and very anxious to return with me. Earnestly request to take them. Answer here direct.

Secretary Hunt telegraphed to Lieut. Harber in reply, that Danenhower's men could accompany him if they were able and willing.

The Waters Abating.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., March 21.—Steamer Gen. Bernard passed down the river, today, with 50,000 rations for the sufferers by the overflow. The officers of the boat report having found nine families at a landing 40 miles above here, on the Arkansas side. They were without a mouthful to eat and were slowly starving to death. None had any money to buy supplies, and a barrel of bread and other supplies were furnished from the boat. The water has fallen 18 inches at Osceola, nine miles above here, and two feet at Council Bend, 50 miles below here. The flood here is about over. The water is gradually receding, and dry land is beginning to appear all the way to Arkansas City, 300 miles south of here. It is expected that in ten days the water will have run off sufficiently to allow plowing. The western edge of the flooded country, in St. Francis river bottom, is being rapidly relieved. Efforts are now directed to Yazoo basin, and below here where there is the greatest danger.

Condensed Telegrams.

The Massachusetts House, yesterday, passed the bill permitting women to practice as attorneys at law.

It snowed heavily all yesterday afternoon and evening in Toronto and St. John and was one of the heaviest storms of the season.

The Tallapoosa sailed from Portsmouth Monday night, an examination showing that she sustained only trifling damage by the collision with the U. S. S. Plymouth.

Steamship City of San Antonio reports having picked up German bark August, from Wilmington for London with a cargo of cotton, on fire off Frying Pan Shoals, and towed her to Wilmington bar.

The Connecticut House of Representatives, yesterday, refused to receive a resolution deploring the severe sentence of Sergeant Mason, and requesting the President to grant him an unconditional pardon and restore him to the army.

Governor Jerome, of Michigan, has issued an address to the public, tendering thanks on behalf of the state for the generous and prompt contributions to the sufferers by the forest fires last year, and announces that no more contributions are needed.

It is said that a strike is threatened in the Biddeford and Saco corporations. The mule-spinners in the Concord and Pepperell's mill have served a notice on the agent of the mill that they will demand a reduction from eleven to ten hours, and the other operatives want an increase of pay.

News reached Bismarck, D. T., at 11 o'clock last night of a terrible wreck at Sweet Briar, about forty miles west of that place, on the Northern Pacific railroad. The wires are down between Bismark and Mandon, but it is stated by the engineer from Mandon that "Black Jack's" work train bound west went through a bridge, and a passenger train but little behind followed. Thirty persons are reported killed and many more injured.

The citizens of Lebanon, Pa., are in a state of excitement over an alleged misappropriation of county funds. At a meeting held in the Court House on Saturday, William M. Derr, a prominent attorney, openly charged the county treasurer, commissioners and auditors with stealing, and invited prosecution. A committee was yesterday appointed with a view of instituting proceedings against these officers.

A TESTY ÆSTHETE.

At the close of the lecture the speaker made his bow and sought to leave the stage. He proceeded leisurely and failed to find the exit. Turning again he bowed awkwardly to the audience, and walked over behind the wing to where a Sentinel reporter was in waiting. Accosting the reporter he said:—"Why did you not have that door so that it would open when I wished to go, and not compel me to make an ass of myself." The reporter politely imparted the information that he was not the scene shifter, and with a grumble, the æsthete started to leave. At this juncture a supe ejaculated;—"Mr. Wilde, we thought it would open." The poor boy was directly crushed by the denunciatory shout:—"Don't 'Mr. Wilde' me; I am of noble birth. Treat me as becomes my station—with respect." He then turned and walked away shouting:—"Come up stairs! Come up, will you!" Who was meant no one knew, and accordingly no one responded to the lank æsthete as he strode off.

Piles! Piles!! Piles!! No One Need Suffer.

A sure cure for blind, bleeding, itching and ulcerated Piles has been discovered by Dr. Williams (an Indian remedy), called Dr. Williams's Indian Pile Ointment. A single box has cured the worst chronic cases of 25 years' standing. No one will suffer five minutes after applying this wonderful soothing medicine. WILLIAMS'S INDIAN PILE OINTMENT absorbs the tumors, allays the intense itching (particularly at night after getting warm in bed), acts as a poultice; gives instant relief, and is prepared ONLY FOR PILES, Itching of the private parts and nothing else.

The Struggle in Parliament.

LONDON, March 21.—The News and other papers remark that Lord Hartington's intimation in the House of Commons last night that the fate of the government is dependent on the cloture resolution is unmistakable. Lord Salisbury's efforts to excite public opinion on the subject are unabated. Replying to an address of the Bradford Conservative Association, he writes:—"The present time is most critical. It is proposed to abolish liberty of speech in the House of Commons. Mr. Bradlaugh is virtually supported by the government and Mr. Gladstone. The latter has almost brought the two houses into conflict simply to gratify his overweening vanity."

The Mosque of St. Sophia.

The Mosque of St. Sophia at Constantinople is stated to be unsafe, and the news has created considerable consternation among the Turks, who hold that the fall of St. Sophia will be the signal for the dismemberment of the Mohammedan empire. The dome threatens to give way at any moment; and should the fall occur at the time of any special ceremony, a terrible catastrophe would be the result.

A New Plan for a Bank.

PARIS, March 21.—Seven of the creditors of the bankrupt Union Generale have issued a circular expressing their satisfaction at M. Bontaux's scheme for founding a new bank on the same basis as the Union Generale, and offering themselves as a permanent committee to watch the interests of the creditors. A circular inviting subscriptions for stock of the new bank has been issued in the name of the late sub-director of the Union Generale, as its nominal founder. The capital of the new bank is fixed at 30,000,000 francs.

Prince Leopold's Marriage.

LONDON, March 21.—In the House of Commons, this evening, Mr. Gladstone submitted a message from the Queen, asking provision for Prince Leopold upon his approaching marriage. PUBLIC LAWS OF RHODE ISLAND.

Passed at the January Session, 1882.

CHAPTER 271.

AN ACT in addition to Chapter 104 of the Public Statutes "Of Water Mills."

(Passed March 15, 1882.)

It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:—

SECTION 1. The Governor shall nominate, and by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, shall appoint an officer, who shall be a competent civil engineer, to be denominated "Commissioner of Dams and Reservoirs," who shall receive for his services an annual salary of one thousand dollars, and shall hold the office for three years. In the event of his death, resignation, absence from the state, or of his inability from any cause to discharge the duties of the office the Governor shall appoint a Commissioner to act in his place until the disability shall be removed, or until the expiration of the term of office of the disqualified or disabled Commissioner.

SEC. 2. The Commissioner of Dams and Reservoirs shall make a thorough inspection of every dam and reservoir in the state as often as may be necessary to keep himself informed of the condition thereof; and shall make and keep a record of the result of such inspection, with whatever knowledge he shall obtain in reference to each dam or reservoir, and shall make an annual report of his doings in his said office in the month of January to the Governor.

SEC. 3. Every person owning, maintaining or having control of any dam or reservoir shall, upon written request therefor, furnish to the Commissioner of Dams and Reservoirs as full, true and particular description of such dam or reservoir as may be practicable; and shall, as soon as may be after said request, cause to be made all such necessary surveys, plans and drawings thereof as may be required by the Commissioner.

SEC. 4. No dam or reservoir shall be constructed or substantially altered until plans and specifications of the proposed work shall have been filed with the Commissioner.

SEC. 5. The Commissioner, on application made to him in writing, by any person owning or representing property liable to injury or destruction by the breaking of any dam or reservoir, or on such application made by any Mayor or Board of Aldermen of any city, or by the Town Council of any town, on account of danger of loss of life, or of injury to any highway or bridge therein, from the breaking of any dam or reservoir, or without such complaint, whenever he shall have cause to apprehend that any dam or reservoir is unsafe, shall forthwith view and thoroughly examine such dam or reservoir. And if in the judgment of the Commissioner such dam or reservoir be not sufficiently strong to resist the pressure of water upon it, or if from any other cause the Commissioner shall determine such dam or reservoir to be unsafe, or if in his judgment there is reasonable cause to believe that danger to life or property may be apprehended from such unsafe dam or reservoir, the Commissioner shall determine whether the water in such reservoir shall be drawn off in whole or in part, and what alterations, additions and repairs are necessary to be made to such dam or reservoir to make the same safe, and shall forthwith in writing under his hand notify the owner or person having control of such dam or reservoir to cause such additions, alterations and repairs in said dam or reservoir to be made within a time to be limited in such notice, and may order the water in said reservoir to be drawn off in whole or in part, as said Commissioner may determine.

SEC. 6. If the owner or person having the control of any dam or reservoir, who shall be required to draw off the water or a portion of the water in any reservoir, or to make alterations in any reservoir, or repairs thereon, or additions thereto, in the manner prescribed in the preceding section, shall not forthwith proceed to comply with such requirement, or shall not prosecute the work when commenced with reasonable expedition, the Commissioner of dams and reservoirs shall make out a complaint in which he shall set forth the condition of the said dam or reservoir, and the steps he has taken to cause the water to be drawn off therefrom and for the alteration or repair thereof, or to have additions made thereto to secure the safety of such dam or reservoir, and the default of the owner or person having control thereof in drawing off the water, repairing, altering or in making addition to such dam or reservoir, and that the safety of life and property is endangered by such default, and shall subscribe the same, and deliver such complaint to the Attorney General or to the Assistant Attorney General, who shall present the same to the Supreme Court, with a petition in the nature of an information ex-officio, praying that the person owning or controlling such dam or reservoir may be required and ordered forthwith to comply with the requirements of the Commissioner of Dams and Reservoirs theretofore made in the premises, or with such other orders as may be made by the court, to secure all persons having reasonable cause to apprehend injury to life or property from the unsafe condition of such dam or reservoir. Upon the filing of such petition, a citation shall issue to the person controlling or owning such dam, commanding him to appear at a time and place therein named, to show cause, if any exists, why the relief prayed for shall not be granted, and the court shall summarily proceed to hear the said cause, and upon hearing the parties, or by proceeding ex-parte, if the respondent fail to appear, the court may pass such order and decree in the premises as will effectually secure the persons interested from danger or loss from the breaking of the dam or reservoir complained of, and the court may enforce such orders and decrees by injunction, process for contempt, by sequestration or by such other process as may be applicable in such cases.

SEC. 7. The Commissioner to be appointed under the first section of this act may employ a consulting engineer in any specific case in which the exigencies of the case may require it. The compensation of such consulting engineer shall be allowed by the Governor, and be paid upon the order of the State Auditor out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated.

SEC. 8. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.

I certify the foregoing to be a true copy.

A NEWPORT PASTOR IN NEW YORK.

The following clipping from a New York paper will be read with interest by the many friends of Rev. E. H. Kettell, formerly pastor of Zion Church in this city, but now rector of St. Ann's Church, 138th street, New York:—

St. Ann's Church, 138th street, is growing rapidly both in members and in influence, in this community. The rectory is to be immediately repaired and put in complete order, with all the modern improvements; a neat stable is also to be built on the church grounds for the convenience of the rector. The work will be pushed rapidly on, and will be finished soon after Easter.

The talented quartette of this church, including the favorite alto, Mrs. Bassford, have been re-engaged, and it is proposed, after Easter, to strengthen the chorus by additional voices, so that the choir will be one of the best in the city.

The Sunday school is now so crowded that the large and commodious rooms of the chapel are too small to hold the children, and it has become necessary to remove some of the classes into the church building. The school numbers some four hundred teachers and scholars.

The Lenten services are very interesting, and the attendance large. The rector is delivering a course of Friday evening lectures on "Seven sayings of our Lord on the Cross." Bishop Potter will visit St. Ann's Church Easter Sunday afternoon, when a large class will be presented for confirmation. During the remaining Sunday evenings in Lent, sermons will be preached by eminent divines of the Episcopal church. Next Sunday evening the Rev. Dr. Hoffman, Dean of the General Theological Seminary, will preach.

Mother Died of Salt Rheum.

J. W. Adams, Newark, Ohio, says: "Cuticura Remedies are the greatest medicines on earth. Had the worst case Salt Rheum in this county. My mother had it twenty years, and in fact died from it. I believe Cuticura would have saved her life. My arms, breast and head were covered for three years, which nothing relieved or cured until I used the Cuticura Remedies."

Mr. Henry Waring, undertaker and furniture dealer in Fall River, says that he is glad he can get such a good medicine for coughs and colds as Dr. Dupree's Syrup of Tar and Glycerine. He always uses it when he has a cough or cold, and so does his wife, and don't know how they could get along without it in the house. For sale by all druggists in Newport at 25 cents a bottle. Geo. L. Claflin & Co., Providence, R. I., wholesale agents.

THAMES STREET.

AN ACROSTIC.

When an æsthetic young lady of town,

Made her way to the shops of renown,
Into Farrow's jewelry store,
Looking his Christmas goods o'er,
There his "too too" low prices she found,
Oh! then she cried, as she dimpled her chin,
Not too fast, Mr. F., but let us begin.

First of all, here are clocks for $1 or more,
And good timekeepers, too, "Are you sure?
Are you sure?"
Reliable watches, stem wind and stem set,
Remember! six dollars, the lowest price yet.
Oh! oh! oh! What forks and spoons, and knives for butter:
Why, such ridiculously low prices are "too utterly utter!"

Only look at these napkin rings going at cost,
Plated and silver, with bead work and frost:
Those are just lovely, "too beautifully too."
In the light they now flash, they are so bright and so new.
Can you think of such prices for gold bands and rings?
It seems that as presents, all are fond of such things,
And these chains and necklets—do tell me
the price?
Now that will suit Nannie, with locket so nice.

Just look at these charms, these pendants,
these pins,
Enough, Mr. Farrow, my head nearly spins,
With the goods, and the prices, your own kind attention,
Each impression I now so æsthetically mention,
Leaves but one choice, with those who want to buy,
Each Christmas as it rolls around when time
is on the fly,
Remembrances, and other gifts, "thanks, thanks, most awfully."

The Newport Journal.

NEWPORT DAILY NEWS AND THE NEWPORT JOURNAL.

The Newport Daily News is published every afternoon (Sundays excepted); at the News building, 137 Thames street, by Davis & Pitman.

The Newport Journal is published at the same office every Saturday morning and contains a selection of the best matter in the Daily, including editorial discussions of the topics of the week, literary miscellanies and at least one good story, and a complete and comprehensive summary of news,—local and general. The Journal is a large 30 column paper and contains a large amount of reading matter that is valuable to readers in town or country who desire a good Newport paper, but who do not take a daily from the city.

Complaints regarding the irregular or improper delivery of either paper should be sent to the office at once.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.

The DailyNews, $6 per annum, or 12 cents a week payable to carrier.

The Newport Journal will be sent to any address in the United States, postage paid, for $2 a year. A discount of 50 cents is made when the whole year is paid strictly in advance. These terms are invariable.

ADVERTISING RATES:

Ordinary advertisements, $1 a square, for the first insertion, and 25 cents for each continuance. Ten lines, or less, in this type, make a square. Advertisements in reading matter are charged for, at 50 per cent. extra and are subject to editorial revision. A discount on these rates is allowed on all advertisements ordered in the Daily for one week or longer.

Notices of births, marriages and funerals 50 cents each.

Yearly advertisers are limited to their immediate business, are guaranteed but five insertions in a week and are allowed twenty-five changes a year.

The circulations of the News and Journal being necessarily distinct, an advertisement inserted in both papers will reach entirely different sets of readers. As further inducement for advertisers to use both News and Journal, a liberal discount on the combined rates is made.

PRINTING.

The News has four steam presses and is a large and well appointed job printing office. All orders for work in this department will be promptly filled, and at reasonable prices. The patronage of the public is respectfully solicited.

Newport Daily News.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 22, 1882.

Mayor Kalloch, of San Francisco, has finally come out a lawyer, having been admitted to the bar. Thus it is that men go on from bad to worse.

The Democrats of the state are holding their council today and will elect a full state ticket. Horace Kimball, of Burrillville, will probably be their nominee for governor.

Benjamin F. Butler is again on the rampage for the governorship of Massachusetts. He thinks he can beat Speaker Noyes should the Republicans bring him forward, but as they are not likely to do that Ben. may not run at all.

When the Shipherd story first came out Senator Blair, of New Hampshire, promised a personal explanation of his relation to the proposed swindle. It is about time that it was made. Both he and Blaine seem to be badly mixed up in the affair.

The Rev. Orville Dewey, D. D., a well-known Unitarian clergyman, died in Springfield yesterday. He was one of the associates of Dr. Channing and held to much the same views of theology to his death. Dr. Dewey was an able minister and highly respected. He was 88 years of age.

The Rev. George W. Woodruff, D. D., one of the leading ministers of the Methodist Episcopal Church, died yesterday. He was for a brief period a member of the Providence Conference and was stationed at St. Paul's in Fall River, though most of his life has been spent in New York and vicinity. Dr. Woodruff was one of the most successful pastors in the denomination.

The feeling is gaining ground that the anti-Chinese bill cannot pass the House of Representatives in the same shape that it passed the Senate. It seems almost certain that the amendment making the time of prohibition twenty years will be stricken out and time diminished to ten years. This will be an improvement but it is not the only obnoxious part of the bill.

A mutual council of Congregational churches, called to act on the resignation of the Rev. J. J. Woolley, pastor of the Pawtucket Congregational Church, was held in that church, yesterday afternoon. After considerable discussion, the council went into secret session, and when they returned, made a report, in which they expressed their hearty confidence in the Christian integrity and pastoral fidelity of the Rev. Mr. Woolley, but advised a dissolution of the pastoral relation between the reverend gentleman and the Pawtucket Congregational Church.

The Senate yesterday passed the Military Academy appropriation bill and discussed at length the bill to improve the life saving service of the country and the tariff commission bill. A protest against the admission of Dakota into the Union was presented by Mr. Hale of Maine. The House adopted the compromise proposition fixing April 11 as the day for the consideration of the Geneva award bill. Nearly the entire session was occupied in discussing the anti-Chinese bill, Mr. Hooker of Mississippi opposing it and Mr. Butterworth of Ohio supporting it. The previous question on the measure will be called at 3 o'clock today.

It is reported that more than 25,000 persons are suffering for the necessaries of life along the line of the overflowing Mississippi. That they should not be allowed to starve is evident even though the United States government has no authority to afford relief. It is one of those cases in which a strict construction of the constitution cannot be enforced. But when the floods are over some measures should be adopted to prevent the repetition of such calamities. People should not be allowed to expose themselves to these dangers, and if they do not know better than to build their houses in such localities they should be compelled to seek higher ground.

THE CASE OF SERGEANT MASON.

That Sergeant Mason is guilty and should be so adjudged there is no doubt. He had no right to shoot at Guiteau and the court martial was acting in the line of duty in imposing upon him a sentence commensurate with the offence. General Hancock could have done nothing else than to approve the findings if he found them all in accordance with law and military authority. Thus far all is or should be satisfactory to the American people.

But cases often arise when even the guilty are entitled to mercy, and to most persons this seems one of them. No one should approve Mason's act as in itself right and proper. Neither should any one deny to him that executive clemency which is so often accorded to criminals of a much worse class. The President extends pardon where there are mitigating circumstances to counterfeiters, forgers, thieves and murderers, and it certainly is no great stretch of mercy to grant remission to poor Mason whose misguided act was performed from a patriotic impulse in which nine-tenths of the people shared at the time. We respectfully submit that those newspapers which put Mason beyond the reach of mercy are carrying things a little too far. It is not necessary to endorse his act or approve it in any degree, but we believe it is well to extend forgiveness as has been done in many less worthy cases. When petitions have been circulated in this and other cities for the pardon of criminals and have been signed by all classes of citizens it was never once supposed that the petitioners were endorsing crime or saying that the offense committed was not in itself wrong. Neither is it in the Mason case. It is clemency that is asked for now that the law has taken its course and been justified and when such papers as the Springfield Republican and a half dozen others decry against the masses of the American people who are inclined to mercy they do themselves great injustice and grossly misrepresent the better instincts of humanity. Here is Guiteau made a moral hero for having murdered the President, whose cell is crowded with admiring visitors who purchase his autograph and portrait at a profit to him of fifty dollars a day and the newspapers referred to have scarcely a word to say, while their indignation knows no bounds, that people sympathize with Mason whose ill-balanced mind led him to avenge the death of our chief magistrate. Things do go by contraries sometimes.

EASTON'S POINT.

THE NEW NEWPORT SUBURB.

Although public attention has been called to the contemplated improvements at Easton's Point under the administration of the new syndicate, but little definite information has as yet been laid before our people. It is well understood that the purchasers are possessed of sufficient financial strength to carry out such plans as may to them seem expedient. Mr. Alex. S. Porter, of Boston, the managing agent, has had ample experience in matters of this kind, and fully appreciates the peculiarities of Newport life and the general wants of our summer visitors. We have good authority for saying that the proprietors towards the consummation of their grand scheme. New and complete heliotype plans will be ready for circulation in a short time. With but few exceptions the land is laid out in lots of two acres which will give each resident ample grounds. Every lot will have an ocean view. Mr. George H. Norman has contracted to build and will have the mains put in within a month from this time. This is an extension of the Newport waterworks which was scarcely anticipated, and the need for it amply demonstrates the wisdom of the city in providing for this great improvement. To show their faith by their works

ARE MOVING RAPIDLY

EACH MEMBER OF THE SYNDICATE

is to build a house of his own which will of itself be a good beginning for the new city. With such a start there must be a rapid and unprecedented growth. A new driveway is to be laid out at once to be called and other streets will be built as rapidly as demanded. The matter of a hotel is not fully decided but it is in contemplation to erect such a house with something on the plan of Elberon and the famous Cliff cottages on this side the beach. This will make the Point a city by itself, beautiful for situation and the joy of all summer residents. This movement has already had its influence in other parts of the city. It is known that Mr. Porter is organizing another syndicate for the purchase of the remaining property of the Gibbs Land Company which embraces on Rhode Island avenue, Channing avenue, Francis street, &c., &c. All this gives an impetus to real estate transactions in Newport and vicinity and bids fair to lay the foundations for the unparalleled prosperity of our already prosperous town. With all these facts before us it is safe to predict, as the Daily News has often done before, that Newport is destined to a magnificent future and is to stand the acknowledged head of the wateringplaces of the world.

JUSTICE COURT.

John Quinn was taken before Judge Ward yesterday afternoon upon a complaint for indecent intoxication, and upon his plea of guilty he was sentenced to six days in the Newport county jail and to pay all costs of prosecution and conviction. Committed.

ARTILLERY INSPECTION.

The Newport Artillery was inspected last evening by Adjutant General Elisha Dyer, Jr., who was accompanied by Quartermaster General C. R. Dennis, Assistant Quartermaster General S. W. Nickerson, and Assistant Judge Advocate General George Lewis Gower. The company, which was under command of Lieut. Colonel George H. Vaughn, Col. Fearing being out of town, was drilled as a battalion of three companies, which were officered as follows:—Co. A., Major Horton; Co. B., Captain Brown; Co. C., Lieut. R. C. Cottrell.

The drill was after the usual order and was highly satisfactory to the inspecting officer who will have hard work to find a better drilled company in New England than Newport's "crack" organization. The arms and other equipments and property of the state were critically examined and pronounced in first class order, the usual compliment being paid to Armorer Lawton for his important work. In this connection it can be said that Mr. Lawton is without doubt the best armorer in the state and is so considered by the state officers and by the officers and members of the Artillery Company. The movements of the company were watched with great interest.

Among those present were Mayor Slocum, Lt. Gov. Fay, Mr. R. S. Franklin, Collector Cozzens, Dr. H. E. Turner, Alderman Cottrell, Councilman Stoddard, Col. John H. Powel, Col. A. P. Sherman, Col. W. J. Cozzens, Col. John C. Seabury, Lieut. Schneider, of the Newport Light Infantry, Attorney General Colt and others.

The Newport band, Mr. William Mathers, leader, discoursed an entertaining program of music during the evening and added much to the evening's entertainment.

AN EXPLOSION.

Newport was treated to an explosion last evening which fortunately was unattended by any very serious consequences. Between five and six o'clock a loud noise was heard which proceeded from the electrical battery and explosive manufactory on Langley's wharf. The cause of the difficulty seems to be in doubt. Mr. Blakeley, who is in charge of the manufactory, was in an adjoining room when the explosion occurred; but a few moments previous he was comfortably seated in front of the cook stove. The stove was blown to pieces and the concussion shattered the windows on each side of the room. The hot coals set the floor on fire, but Mr. Blakeley extinguished the flames with a few pails of water before they had obtained any headway. Officer Caswell prevented the striking of an alarm of fire. Quite a crowd was attracted to the scene of the disaster and for a time very exaggerated reports of the affair were generally circulated.

It is said that the explosion was occasioned by percussion caps which fell from a shelf on to the stove and exploded on the hot surface.

MR. WOOLLETT'S MERCHANT OF VENICE.

In spite of the disagreeable storm last evening a great many people were present to listen to Mr. Woollett's delightful recital of Shakespeare's Merchant of Venice. Only portions of the piece were read but these parts were the best, and were recited in a delightful manner. The rendering of Shylock's parts showed the true artist in their interpreter who brought out the character of the money-loving Jew in an unmistakable manner. Launcelot Gobbo and his "sand-blind" father were represented both in manner and in voice in such a way as to make the audience feel that the pair were really on the stage.

Mr. Woollett's greatest effort and his greatest success were undoubtedly in the court room scene. His rendering of the speech of Portia as the judge beseeching Shylock to have mercy on Antonio was grand, and the changes in Shylock's voice and manner when he heard of his varying fortunes were depicted in a truly artistic manner. The wrapt attention of the audience told how completely the reciter gained and kept their attention.

The next recital will be given on Saturday evening next at half-past eight o'clock. The subject will be "Macbeth."

A BRIEF REJOINDER.

To the Editor of the Daily News:—

I thought that I stated explicitly enough that I agreed with "A" that it was a thing almost unheard of for a Speaker to "vote to tie a vote," but "A" need not have gone to Jamaica for an exception to the rule; we have a case nearer home. It happened once upon a time that a certain Governor F—— captain general and commander-in-chief of all the forces of the state, was much interested in the success of a measure before the Senate. When the vote was taken, his project was defeated by one majority whereupon the governor declared he would vote against it thereby making a tie and then decided it in the affirmative. As presiding officer of the Senate this has since been known as the Governor F—— rule and was perhaps the precedent for Sir Anthony Musgrave.

I can answer for "Civis" that he signed the petition for a general law upon the subject of school superintendent and that I signed the remonstrance against such a law. I was satisfied to let well enough alone.

"A" seems to think that it required a long time to make a bargain or combination to defeat a bill—he does not seem to know much about the little game of "If you'll tickle me I'll tickle you." I do not think he knows much about the ways of politicians or of parliamentary rules.

"S" intimated that if the Speaker had any convictions on the subject, and those convictions were in favor of a general law, he had a queer way of proving it by declining to vote against the motion to reconsider, thereby defeating the bill. What I do say is, 1st, that he (the Speaker) was wrong; 2d, that he knew he was wrong; 3d, that he neither represented the seven hundred remonstrants, nor yet the three hundred petitioners for a general law; that for some reason he deserted the other members of the Newport delegation, who voted against the motion to reconsider, and 4th, that I believe that "A" is right when he says his term of office is drawing to a close. "S."

A FAMILY BEREAVEMENT.

The recent death of Miss Ida E. Essex has cast a deep gloom over a large circle of friends. Her uniform gentle disposition, and her unassuming manners seemed to win for her a place in the affections of all who knew her. She was a loving and devoted daughter and sister, as was manifested by her many acts of self-denial in the interest of her relatives. Her many ministrations of sympathy and kindness to the sick and the afflicted will long be remembered by many who survive her.

A NEEDY CASE.

To the Editor of the Daily News:—

The case of John Goffe and family, to which you call attention as affording opportunity for missionary work, is one of those which point forcibly to the need of legal action to rescue and educate the children of drunken parents if we would not have them suffer whilst infants and grow up to be drunkards and thieves and prostitutes.

On inquiry at the Charity Organization Society, I find that the case is already in missionary hands, being one of those of which Trinity Church assumes the care. This fact only shows more clearly that legal action alone can meet the danger. P.

SUPREME COURT---MARCH TERM.

SECOND DAY—AFTERNOON.

The court came in this afternoon at three o'clock. Present Chief Justice Durfee.

Immediately after the coming in of the court, both parties being present, the trial of the pending case of William J. Swinburne vs. William H. Thurston, was resumed.

The testimony in this case was closed at 5.20 when Mr. Peckham made his argument for the defendant closing at 5.50 when the court was adjourned to nine o'clock Wednesday morning. This case is still pending.

At 4.30 the grand jury took a recess until ten o'clock Wednesday morning.

THIRD DAY.

The court came in this morning at nine o'clock. Present Chief Justice Durfee.

Immediately after the opening of the court, the trial of the case of William J. Swinburne vs. William H. Thurston, pending at the hour of adjournment last evening, was resumed, and Col. Honey entered upon his argument for the plaintiff, closing at ten o'clock, when Judge Durfee charged the jury until 11.10, and they then retired for a verdict.

Judge Matteson came into court at 10.15 and resumed his place on the bench. The second petit jury was then empannelled with Thomas Carr Watson, of Jamestown, as foreman, and case No. 1295 of the docket. Edward W. Read vs. Maria McKeon, was put on trial; Messrs. Gilpin, of Newport, and Eaton, of Providence, for plaintiff and Mr. Peckham for defendant.

The grand jury came in at 11.30 and preferred bills of indictment as follows:—

Against Elizabeth Johnson for keeping and maintaining a common nuisance—on bail and not yet arraigned;

Against William H. Durfee for uttering forged paper—three indictments. He was arraigned and pleaded not guilty to each bill, and was required by the court to furnish bail in the sum of two thousand dollars on each indictment, six thousand in all. Committed again for want of bail;

Against Jerome Cox, a young man eighteen years of age, for breaking and entering the dwelling house of John Smith in the town of Tiverton, and stealing therefrom in the day time. He was arraigned and pleaded guilty, and sentence was deferred until his attorney from Fall River can appear for him in court, and he was committed to await sentence;

Against John H. Slavin for attempting to poison. He was arraigned and pleaded not guilty. Bail fixed at five hundred dollars and he was committed until he can procure bail;

Against Thomas Carrigan and wife for an assault upon Archibald Donnelly. Thomas was arraigned and pleaded not guilty, and was committed until he can give bail in the sum of five hundred dollars. His wife was afterward arraigned and pleaded not guilty, and is waiting for bail.

No bills were found against John Roach waiting trial upon the complaint for larceny from the person. None against John C. Atwater for selling liquor to minors, and none against Thomas S. Curtis for larceny.

The trial of the criminal docket was assigned to Tuesday, the 9th day of May next, at 10 o'clock A. M.

As soon as the report of the grand jury had been disposed of and the jurors dismissed for the term, the jury in the case of Swinburne vs. Thurston came into court and rendered a verdict for plaintiff in the sum $381.12.

At one o'clock the jurors in the civil case were excused until 2 o'clock and Thomas Carrigan was brought into court again and his wife appeared and pleaded not guilty to the indictment against her, and gave bail with her husband, Carrigan, himself not yet having obtained bail.

John H. Slavin was also brought into court again and gave bail, with his grandmother, Mary O'Connell, as surety in the sum of $500.

The divorce petition of Esther Pierce vs. John Pierce, of Tiverton, was heard by the court and granted and decree issued. C. M. Lee, Esq., for petitioner.

The court was then adjourned until three o'clock this afternoon.

The Toronto Evening News, speaking of the Boston Opera Company's performance of "Betsy Baker" in that city on the 17th says:—"Miss Mary Alice Vars, who enacted the title role, is a powerful soprano and a very dashing actress. Her imitation of a cornet brought down thunders of applause and made her the pet of the house for the rest of the evening."

SIBERIAN PERILS.--MELVILLE'S REPORT AND DE LONG'S RECORDS.

In the report of Engineer Melville and the accompanying records left at different points by Captain De Long, which we print today, will be found in detail all that is yet known of the fate of those who escaped from the Jeannette in the Arctic seas and who reached on the Siberian coasts a land more desolate and deadly than the seas themselves. Between the engineer's report, the various records found of De Long's movements and the letters hereto given of Lieutenant Danenhower it is possible to relieve the entanglements and make out the story of the movements of the two boats' companies, which, as telegraphed, were in confusion.

Both the captain's cutter and the whale boat, it appears, made land on the same day—September 16—but at points remote from one another, and neither company knowing the other's good fortune in this particular. Those on Melville's boat got ashore immediately, but the captain's boat, owing to difficulties of navigation, could not get near the shore, and her company landed two days later, wading a great distance through the shallow sea. Melville's landing was at the eastern side of the Lena delta, and apparently nearer to native villages; for, landing on the 16th, he reached on the 19th, or in three days, a settlement of natives. Here he remained until October 8, or nineteen days, unable to penetrate farther into the country till sleighing time should come, and here he was accidentally discovered by a Russian exile. Through this person he was able to open communication with the Russian commandant at Belun by the end of October. He had therefore consumed six weeks from the time he landed in getting far enough inland to find a native village and to attract the attention of the authorities who could supply him and his comrades with the necessaries of life; for, as the Russian exile referred to gave him meat and salt, it is supposable that in the refuge of a Siberian village he was not altogether beyond the danger of starvation.

Captain De Long was less fortunate in his advance. Some of his men were already badly crippled when, upon September 19, they started on their hunt for a native village. They had their food for four days and saw game. On the night of the 21st they shot two reindeer and felt encouraged as to the future, but by the 26th they had only reached a point twelve miles from the head of the Lena delta. On the 28th they wished to cross from the east to the west side of the river and waited for it to freeze. They crossed it October 1. They had, despite the game killed, been more or less short of food. Erickson died October 7. On October 9 they were in a bad condition and without very hopeful prospects, and the two sailors, Nihderman and Noros, were sent ahead to try and find and forward help. From the time of the departure of these two men from De Long's camp the veil is drawn over the captain's fate; not a syllable has been made out, not an indication discovered that point certainly to any later date than this separation. The two sailors were on the road fourteen days and had been without food for six days when they also were discovered by that famous Russian exile, who happily found them as he was going to and fro between the Russian commandant at Belun and Melville at Bukoff. Their errand was reported to Melville, who was not far from the village to which they were taken and who saw them a few days later, November 5, and started the night of that day with an expedition to carry assistance to De Long. It was then twenty-six days since the sailors had left the captain. But Melville's team, which made eighty-five versts in the day, could, perhaps, easily cover in a day all the distance the sailors had made in fourteen days, and just as easily in another day all the distance that De Long's crippled party had made since the sailors had left him. How, then, was it that Melville did not find the captain? Apparently the ice and snow of those countries must make it impossible to follow a trace with accuracy: for Melville hunted in vain from November 5 to November 27, and then was compelled to return by the refusal of the natives to continue.—[N. Y. Herald.

"SPIRITUALISM" AT THE OPERA HOUSE TONIGHT.

The Omaha News contained the following on Miss Anna Eva Fay who appears at the Opera House this evening:—

Some of the results produced were really wonderful. In one instance, especially, where the medium sits in plain view upon the stage in front of the cabinet, and produces most unaccountable demonstrations within the charmed inclosure after it has been critically examined by judges selected from the audience, and was also closely watched during the continuance of the manifestations. The "communications" obtained, several of which were read to the audience and recognized by friends of the "departed," were also the cause of much speculation, and to the spiritualists quite conclusive as to the genuineness of the medium.

......Alexander H. Stephens gave a dinner party one evening last week in Washington in honor of Mrs. Chapman Coleman. ......In writing his opinions and other documents, Justice Clifford of the United States Supreme Court, always avoided as much as possible the use of the definite article. He would write page after page without the use of a single "the." Why he did so no one ever found out, nor indeed dared to try to find out, except the jocular Justice Grier, who alone could take liberties with his dignified colleague from Maine. Once, in hope of solving the mystery, he asked, slapping Clifford on the back as he spoke, "Clifford, old boy, what makes you hate the definite article so?" But Clifford drew himself up with Roman dignity, and replied gravely, "Brother Grier, you may criticise my law, but my style is my own."

Alligator hides are constantly increasing in value and it is thought that before long the reptiles will be regularly "cultivated."

GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

JANUARY SESSION AT PROVIDENCE.

TUESDAY, March 21.

Senate.

The Senate met this morning at 11 o'clock, Gov. Littlefield in the chair.

Senator Doyle, from the judiciary committee, reported the bill in amendment of Chapter 127 of the Public Statutes, "Of Milk," which establishes a standard test to guard against adulteration.

Senator Bourn, from the judiciary committee, reported back the act authorizing the city of Providence to hire the sum of $75,000 for harbor improvements. Passed in concurrence to be engrossed.

Senator Bourn called up the special order of the day, being the substitute bill offered by Senator Doyle for the Seekonk bridge bill passed on the 18th inst.

Senator Doyle explained that the amendments were simply verbal, and made necessary by the changes in phraseology in the incorporation of Senator Bourn's amendments.

The bill was discussed by sections and the substitute bill was lost.

An adjournment was taken to Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock.

House.

The House met at 11 o'clock, Mr. Speaker Sauborn in the chair.

Mr. Woods, in accordance with previous notice, presented a bill for an act in amendment of chapter 146 of the Public Statutes, "Of Private and Several Oyster Fisheries." The bill provides for the appointment, by the commissioners of shell fisheries, of watchmen, who shall have power and authority given to police constables in section 23 of chapter 146.

Mr. Adams introduced a bill for an act in amendment of Chapter 56, of the Public Statutes, of the Powers and Duties of School Committees, providing that the School Committees of a town "shall have power in case the average attendance of any school falls below six, to suspend said school in their discretion, and to make such provision as they may deem best for the attendance of the children properly belonging to said school upon some other public school."

Mr. Sheffield reported back from the committee on the judiciary, bill for an act in amendment of Chapter 44 of the Public Statutes "Of the Collection of Taxes," with committee amendments. It was laid on the table temporarily and ordered printed.

Mr. Tobey introduced a bill for an act in amendment of Chapter 87 of the Public Statutes, "Of the Suppression of Intemperance." The bill strikes out the "schoolhouse clause" as it stands, and substitutes in its place the provision that licenses shall not be granted for the sale of liquors "within 100 feet of any public school, measured along the line of the nearest public street or highway." The present limit is 400 feet, and no provision is made with reference to the manner of measurement. The bill was referred to the committee on the judiciary.

Mr. Sheffield gave notice that the committee on constitutional changes will meet tomorrow on the rising of the House, in the judiciary committee room, for the purpose of considering its report.

The House then adjourned.

FORTY-SEVENTH CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, March 21.

Senate.

Mr. Hoar offered a resolution, which was adopted, calling on the President for the instructions given early in 1860 to the then Minister to China (George F. Seward) concerning Chinese immigration and a modification of the existing treaties relating thereto, with the correspondence between Mr. Seward and the State Department relating to said subject.

Mr. Hale presented a protest against the admission of Dakota as a state until her record is purged of the repudiation with which it is charged in the matter of the Yankton county bonds.

The morning hour up to 2 o'clock was consumed in a discussion without action upon amendments to the House bill creating additional life-saving stations, and to make the service more efficient. The debate turned mainly upon the propriety of creating a civil pension list for disabled sailmen, etc., as proposed by the amendment reported from the commerce committee.

The proposition finally prevailed.

At 2 o'clock, the Senate, on motion of Mr. Hale, took up the military academy appropriation bill.

The Senate committee amendments were agreed to, and the bill passed.

The Senate then resumed the consideration of the tariff commission bill, and Mr. Morgan addressed the Senate upon the necessity of prompt tariff revision by the committees of Congress.

The Senate at 5 o'clock adjourned until tomorrow.

House.

According to the agreement made last night, the House proceeded to vote upon the compromise proposition, making the Geneva award bill a special order for April 11th, subject, however, to tariff appropriation bills and the bill referring private claims to the court of claims.

The resolution to this effect was adopted—year, 162; nays, 55.

In reply to a question by Mr. Cox, of New York, Mr. Page, of California, stated that he would call the previous question on the Chinese bill tomorrow at 3 o'clock, and then the morning hour having been dispensed with, the consideration of that bill was resumed by the House.

After considerable discussion of the bill by Messrs. McClure, Bayne, Scranton, Butterworth and Hooker, it went over without action.

Mr. Leedom, of Ohio, from the committee on territories, submitted the minority report upon the bill for the admission of Dakota, there being no opposition thereto.

The House then, at 5 o'clock, adjourned.

LITERARY AND DRAMATIC.

Mme. Sarah Bernhardt is looking exceedingly ill, and it is thought in Paris that she cannot live much longer.

Signora Adelaide Tessoro, now travelling in South America, is to play in this country next season. She is said to be a neice of Ristori.

Miss Mary Anderson will spend a portion of next summer on board of a new steam yacht named the Galatea, which is being constructed for her.

Mlle. Van Zandt achieved a great success at Monte Carlo, in "Dinorah." Stalls sold for forty francs, and a great number of persons were unable to obtain admittance.

The friends of Edwin Booth intend to give him a farewell dinner in New York before he sails in May to complete his interrupted professional engagements in Europe.

Mrs. Langtry writes to a friend in New York that she will accept no offer from America for next season, and that, if she continues her stage career, for the present it will be in England.

Miss Harkness, the young Boston lady who took the first prize for violin playing at the Paris Conservatoire, has made several successful appearances in concerts in the French provincial towns and cities.

The original MS. of Major Andre's satirical poem, "The Cow Chase," is owned by G. W. Childs. It is bound in a volume containing several portraits of André and of noted Americans who had some association with his career or his ignominious end.

The late Lord Lytton left three unpublished plays behind him, and it is said that one of them, on the subject of Brutus and Tarquin, has been submitted by the present Lord Lytton to Mr. Irving, who will probably produce it at the Lyceum.

Rudolph Aronson has returned from Europe, and announces some notable events for the opening of his Casino in New York city, the first program to include new waltzes for the occasion, by Waldteufel and Metra, and a "La Tribut de Zamora" selection for the first time in this country. Strauss, the great waltz writer, has been secured as orchestral director.

W. J. Florence has three plans in view—one to take a theatre in New York, the second to continue on the road, and the third to get a foreign appointment. Petitions are being circulated in every state in the Union requesting that Mr. Florence be appointed to some representative position in Europe. The one here has been signed by the principal editors, state officers and members of the legislature irrespective of parties.—[Columbus Cor. N. Y. Mirror.

THE YACHT GLEAM.

Mr. F. A. Gower of Rhode Island sends the following communication in regard to his famous boat which has won a large number of races in these waters, from Falmouth, England, under date of March 7th:—

The New York Custom House, as at present conducted, appears to be a very interesting institution. I lately sent back to the maker (Crandall, of Stonington) the sails of the Rhode Island catboat Gleam for overhauling and repair. This cost at the best for freight and charges as much as the work to be done would have cost in England, but I wished everything about the Gleam to be of American origin. The invoice stated the sails to be of American manufacture, and the maker sent on a certificate to this effect to the Custom House authorities at New York. Whereupon these sagacious gentlemen impose a charge for import and entry fees of a sum equal to all the other expenses together, and my attorney advises that to obtain a rebate would use up the sum itself and probably more. Is this for the "protection of American industry," or is it perhaps remotely connected with a question of fees?

SEED IMPLEMENTS,

—AND—

FERTILIZERS!

I would remind all of the fact that mine is the only house in the place where can be found everything that is required in the Field, Lawn or Garden. My stock of

FLOWER and GARDEN SEEDS

is new and of choice selection. On quality of Rhode Island Bent, White Dutch Clover, Red Top, English Lawn Mixture or other varieties, of which I have a large stock, I defy competition. The is the only suitable Fertilizer for a fine lawn. It improves the growth, gives a fine color, and does not produce foul seed, as stable manures do. All of the first-class gardeners use it. Refer to them for advice. My stock of

Lawn Dresser

is of superior manufacture to any in the city, while my

HORTICULTURAL CUTLERY

is imported from the best English houses. A specialty of

RUBBER HOSE.

Experience in handling these goods proves that a cheap quality is poor economy. Increased demands for better goods decide my keeping on hand only the best XX, of which I have all sizes required.

Hamason & Beckley's Pocket Cutlery.

A line of these goods, which are made from the best imported steel, and are warranted better than any other make. Don't fail to buy them. A special attention to the trade. Call and select from a large and well-assorted stock.

Has a mouth, but speaks not—a river.

"Do you speak German?" was asked of one of Gotham's giddy butterflies of fashion the other evening. "No, but I dawnce it," was the reply of the maiden.

A bald-headed professor, reproving a youth for the exercise of his fists, said, "We fight with our heads at this college." The youth reflected a moment and then replied, "Ah, I see, and you have butted all your hair off."—[Waif.

North country magnate to tenant farmer—"Well, Mr. Cluff, so we're going to have an election. How do you—hum—what do you—think about it?" Dalesman (warily)—"Think about it, sir?" Whaa, I thinks I shall be shakkin' hands wi some greent foalks vaary shortly!"—[London Punch.

"Miserable," said young Symonds. "Of course I'm miserable, and I can't help looking so. I'm invited, and can't refuse to attend, a party given by the girls at the boarding school. They're going to cook the supper themselves, and I shall have to eat some of the bread and cake, and I shall die in an awful agony before morning. I know I shall!"—[Boston Post.

They tell of a man out West who was putting a blast in a well, and it went off prematurely and blew him out into an apple tree about fifty feet away. In a moment he recovered himself, and remarking, "The Lord knows better than I do after all; I guess it is almost time to go pruning," took a large pruning knife from his pocket and set to work.—[Rome Sentinel.

THE PERIODICALS.

THE ATLANTIC MONTHLY for April presents a varied and interesting table of contents. The serials of Mr. Bishop and Mr. Lathrop are continued the latter being finished, and Miss Elizabeth Stuart Phelps begins a new story entitled "Dr. Zay," which cannot fail to attract very general attention. The author of "The Gates Ajar" and "The Story of Avis" is sure of a host of readers for whatever she writes. John Fiske contributes a scientific article entitled "Europe Before the Arrival of Man." Mr. Charles Wood writes "A Hindu Reformer," giving the life and religious views of Chunder Sen. Readers of short stories will be strongly attracted by Miss Woolson's "In Venice," and Mr. Deming's account of "Jacob's Insurance." "Shakespearean Operas" are discussed by A. E. Barr; Eugene W. Hilgard has an interesting paper on "Progress in Agriculture by Education and Government Aid;" Edward Farrer contributes an article on the "Folk Lore of Lower Canada." There are several poems, reviews and a diversified Contributors' Club. Houghton, Mifflin & Co., Boston.

ST. NICHOLAS, which is always attractive, seems to grow more so with each issue. Its illustrations in this number are excellent, and its numerous articles full of interest for the class for which the publication is designed. They are too numerous to be properly characterized in a brief notice, and it is only necessary to advise all our readers to secure the copy for the month. Once in possession it will speak for itself.

THE CENTURY, late Scribner's opens with an article itself worth the year's subscription as it throws much light upon an important and practical question of the day. It is by Mme. Ragozin and entitled "Russian Jews and Gentiles." The writer is a Russian lady, now living in New York, and is the author of recently published papers on the Nihilists in the International Review. The reader is distinctly warned at the start, by a sub-title, that the paper is written "from a Russian point of view." It is, in brief, a detailed account of the revelations of Jacob Brafmann, several years ago, concerning the alleged systematic oppressions of Gentiles, partly under cover of law, by the Jews of southwestern Russia. These oppressions (and not religious intolerance) are said by the writer to be the occasion of the anti-Jewish uprisings during the past year in that region. A graphic account of these riots is prefixed to the account of Brafmann's horrible accusations. The falsity of these, it is only just to say, is indignantly asserted by Jews. It is certainly remarkable that in the midst of the world's sympathy for the Jews any one should assert, as does Mme. Ragozin:—"They are not 'persecuted.' Only, from time to time, the popular patience—that dike built up of ignorance, apathy and habitual endurance—breaks; then there is an outburst of angry waters." A reply to Mme. Ragozin is to be contributed to the May Century by Miss Emma Lazarus, who, in this number, has a significant paper, "Was the Earl of Beaconsfield a Representative Jew?" Aside from this Jewish discussion there are many able articles in prose and poetry.

These periodicals may be had at any of the news rooms and book stores.

Senator Edmunds has been given leave of absence by the Senate on account of sickness in his family, and this fact gives some hope to the beggars for subsidy schemes—like that voting $2,500,000 annually to steamship lines for 10 years and the Eads project. The Republicans very properly decline to reduce internal revenue taxation, but it does not follow that there will be no reduction of customs duties. The longer it is put off, the more sweeping it will be.—[Springfield Republican.

It is useless to deny that the brightest and fairest fall easy victims to consumption, and equally fruitless to ignore the fact that decline has its origin in many cases in neglected catarrh. Sanford's Radical Cure is a pure, sweet balsamic specific.

Winthrop Wrought-Iron Furnace!

Has been in use for the past seven years, and given entire satisfaction. I offer it to the public as the most desirable furnace on the market. Special attention is called to the new dust-flue damper and revertible flues, that are not found in the other wrought-iron furnaces. The dust-flue damper prevents escape of dust when shaking down; the revertible flues cause the flames to sweep the entire surface of the wrought-iron drum, thereby securing much greater radiation of heat, and consequently a great saving in fuel. Cost less to keep in repair than any other furnaces. Are powerful heaters, with moderate consumption of coal. I have sold over 70 in this city. Sold by
